

LITTLE TOTS WILL PRODUCE A REAL PLAY

"THE TOYMAKER'S DREAM" TO BE PRESENTED BY THE SCHOOL CHILDREN.

Miss Hallie F. Gelbart, who arrived Thursday from Salt Lake to supervise the production of "The Toy-maker's Dream," which will be given the later part of the month by the pupils of the Tonopah schools, started yesterday in the work of securing the cast. The playlet was written by Miss Gelbart and has been produced in many of the larger cities of the United States. Among the press notices received is the following from the Salt Lake Herald: "There are certainly some proud fathers and mothers in Salt Lake City today and those who attended the little playlet 'The Toy-maker's Dream' at the Salt Lake theater last evening know the reason why. The play given for the benefit of the Day Nursery and Orphans' home proved of greater interest than many shows at the Salt Lake theater this season. It was a collection of little tots ranging from 3 to 13 years old and real actors embryo."

"It was one of the prettiest pieces of work that has been shown for some time. Never a break occurred during the entire performance and many of the little ones could give their elders points on feeling at home on the stage."

"There was one little jumping jack who, an interested playgoer asserted, was a cracker-jack. Garbed in a clown's suit he hopped about as a mechanical clown with the regularity of a toy doll."

"In all there was much that was far finer than the mere paragraphs of a newspaper could portray. It was the work of children who acted dozens of years older than they are, but with the grace and innocence of childhood. The drills and dances were something to be proud of. When the toy-maker fell asleep the dolls began their romp and it was then that the pleasing numbers were given."

"Hallie F. Gelbart, who trained the youngsters certainly ought to feel satisfied with what they did."

The proceeds of the play will be devoted to the athletic and library fund of the school.

FALSE ALARM IS SOUNDED BY SWITCH ENGINE

DEPARTMENT CALLED OUT IN FRUITLESS QUEST YESTER-DAY AFTERNOON.

The sounding of a whistle of one of the switch engines yesterday afternoon served as a call for the fire department. The whistle sounded a number of toot toots in rapid succession, which resembled a call for the fire apparatus. But in reality it was signaling for a clear track. The department, however, responded but after arriving at the corner of Oddie avenue and Cross street, the mistake was discovered.

P. J. JUCKEM SUFFERS STROKE OF APOPLEXY

STRICKEN DEAD WHILE STAND-
ING IN FRONT OF PLACE OF BUSINESS.

Peter J. Juckem, one of the best known young men of Tonopah and one of the proprietors of the Oasis saloon, dropped dead yesterday morning while standing in front of his establishment. He had stepped from the bar room to the sidewalk and was engaged in watching the arrivals on the morning train pass when suddenly he dropped to the sidewalk. A companion hastily ran to the office of Dr. Cowden and summoned that physician, who arrived within two minutes after Juckem fell to the sidewalk. He was dead by the time the doctor arrived. A coroner's inquest was held in the afternoon which stated that the deceased had come to his death by a stroke of apoplexy.

Juckem was aged about 27 years and was unmarried. He came to Tonopah several years ago from Sheboygan, Wisconsin, where his mother resides. He also has several brothers and sisters in both Sheboygan and Milwaukee. All his relatives were immediately notified of his death by telegraph and the remains will be taken east Sunday.

About a year ago the deceased entered into a partnership with Clem Hertel and purchased the Oasis saloon. He was a member of the Eagles and the funeral services will be held under the auspices of that order. The remains will be accompanied to the train by the volunteer fire department, of which organization he was a member.

It is thought that the stroke of apoplexy was brought on by the excitement of the Big Casino fire several night ago, when Juckem was thrown from a ladder. He received no injury, but physicians state that this may have been the primary cause of his death.

A mass will be held at the Catholic church at 7:30 o'clock this morning over the remains and will be followed by a sermon by Father Butler.

FRED BERRY SOUNDS PRAISES OF MANHATTAN

SPENDS SEVERAL HOURS YES-TERDAY LOOKING OVER THE PLACER WORKINGS.

Attorney Fred L. Berry left yesterday morning by auto for Belmont and returned late last evening. On his return trip Mr. Berry spent several hours in Manhattan and took occasion to visit the placer workings.

"I happened to arrive at the time 'Dry Wash' Wilson was making his daily clean-up and was more than surprised to see the nuggets he exhibited from the day's run," said Mr. Berry last night. "Wilson had a water bucket that was about a quarter filled with what he had secured from the sluice boxes. From what I could judge I would say that of this amount 25 per cent of the bucket's contents was gold. Wilson had a number of large nuggets he had secured during the day. He estimates the value of the ground at about $7 to $8 per cubic yard."

"Hoists can be seen for a distance of three and one-half miles down the canyon and every lease is being worked. All the tributaries to the main canyon are being explored and so far the investigation shows each to contain plenty of placer gold."

"During my stay I met A. M. Nurse of Sacramento, who is installing a pneumatic dredge. The machinery is enroute and the plant will be in operation at an early date."

"Throughout the gulch the leasers have become better acquainted with the use of the water and are now saving it and using it over and over again. Consequently they have experienced no shortage. The streets of the town are lined with men and the camp has taken on the appearance of its early days."

SEITZ BOYS ARE OPENING UP GOOD PROPERTY

ENCOUNTER LEDGE THAT LOOKS
LIKE A BIG PROPO-SITION.

For the past six months work has been conducted by the Seitz brothers at a point about three miles southeast of Tonopah on ground owned by the Nevada Gold Mining and Prospecting company. The Seitz brothers have sunk a shaft ninety feet and have drifted about 160 feet. One of the brothers came to town yesterday afternoon and stated that the shots of Thursday night had broke into a two and a half foot ledge, but they did not know the value of the ore as they had not received the returns from the assayer. They have encountered numerous small veins and all indications are that they have a property that will be a paying one. A hoist has been ordered and will be installed by June.

The Seitz brothers are well known in Tonopah and one of them is an athlete of note, holding several records made at the Georgetown university at Washington, D. C.

A short distance from their property Coffin and Lawson are operating on what is known as the Lawson claim. This party has a two and one-half foot ledge that has given assay returns of over $700 to the ton. They are now negotiating for the sale of the property to George Wingfield and it is nearly assured that the sale will take place within a short time.

JURY SECURED IN CAMBLING CASE LAST EVENING

AFTER SPENDING TEN DAYS IN EXAMINING VENIREMEN
BOX IS FILLED.

After ten days, during which time the regular panel was exhausted and two special venires were called, the jury in the case of C. M. Wandell vs. the Sixty-Six club was completed late yesterday afternoon. Both sides had exhausted their lists of peremptory challenges during this time and had not the number been limited the work of securing the twelve men good and true might have continued for another week.

The taking of testimony will start this morning. Wandell is suing the Sixty-Six club of Rhyolite for the sum of $10,000, which he avers he lost in that place by gambling while a minor several years ago. In appearances the plaintiff is over six feet in height and would apparently pass for a person over 26 years of age. Considerable difficulty was experienced in securing the jury on account of the prospective jurors having ideas concerning the case that could be removed only by strong evidence.

The men who will try the case are: J. A. Scurlock, J. A. Falkenstein, A. P. Williams, Matrin Johnson, H. C. Jones, J. P. Brissell, Peter M. Cunningham, Matt Devine, Angus MacDonald, James G. Ford, Ed Thornton and R. H. Barnes.
